Dear Mr. Weisberg:

We have received your copy of POST MORTEM: SUPPRESSED KENNEDY AUTOPSY in good condition and had it reproduced on our Xerox. We are returning your original copy and an additional Xerox copy herewith.

Thank you for allowing us to make the reproduction and place a copy of your book in our Library. We have taken your copy apart and restapled it in accordance with your instructions.

In my last letter I failed to tell you how we learned about your book; a question you asked in your letter of April 15, 1969. We found out about your book from a Library of Congress catalog card sent to us together with others as a result of us taking part in the Library of Congress title two project.

Thank you again for allowing us to reproduce your book and I trust that it will arrive in satisfactory condition.

Sincerely yours,

Vladimir Zernov
